CALGARYINC MAGAZINE UNVEILS CITY'S BRIGHTEST YOUNG LEADERS OF 2007 IN POPULAR 'TOP 40 UNDER 40' ISSUE available September 4th

Calgary, AB – Marking the 9th anniversary of its highly anticipated Top 40 Under 40 recognition program, CalgaryInc magazine unveiled today its 2007 class of deserving recipients. Selected by a panel of judges consisting of the magazine's editorial staff and senior business leaders, each of the nominees excels in their careers, gives back to the community, and in the process, elevates the profile of Calgary.

"The young leaders we are recognizing today and in our September issue are the next generation of business leaders," said Vivienne Feick, publisher of CalgaryInc magazine. "Not only are each and every one of them dedicated to their careers, but they have managed to find time to give back to the community and leave a lasting footprint on the future of Calgary. They are a true inspiration to those who will follow them and to the city's business community as a whole," she added. The class members are not ranked in any order; they each share an equal position as one of the top 40 performers in Calgary. Nominations for the Class of 2008 will open in March, 2008 and more information can be found at www.top40under40.com.

A full list of the 2007 Top 40 Under 40 recipients is attached and embargoed until 7 p.m., September 4th, 2007.

CalgaryInc is where the city's savvy business people turn for innovative ways to enhance their business and work experience. CalgaryInc targets Calgary's up-and-coming entrepreneurs, managers and community leaders who are climbing the career ladder, positioning themselves to become the next generation of top CEOs and executives. CalgaryInc is the place to read about the movers, shakers and dealmakers in Calgary's business community – Canada's ever-growing business capital in the West. It's the only publication focused exclusively on the issues, trends and people that help Calgary business leaders achieve their goals and grow their companies.
